NEPTUNE FESTIVAL VIRGINIA BEACH

For more than three decades, the Virginia Beach Neptune Festival has transformed the resort city of Virginia Beach, Va., into a colorful and festive tapestry of special events and family memories. Celebrating its 35th year in 2008, the Neptune Festival remains the city's largest event and one of the most successful festivals on the East Coast. It has been recognized as among the top 100 celebrations in the nation and continuously ranked as one of the top ten festivals in the region.

Also included in this tour are several unique attractions that are not found anywhere else. This region is the home of the largest Naval installation in the world. You will have the opportunity to get on Naval Air Station Oceana and Naval Station Norfolk and tour these massive facilities with both active and retired military personnel. You will have the pleasure of eating at the Officer's Club along side the brave men and women of the armed forces. Also visit the very first public works project assigned by George Washington; the Cape Henry Lighthouse in Virginia Beach.

Other highlights include the Virginia Living Museum, the Virginia Sports Hall of Fame, the Norfolk Botanical Garden, the Virginia Air and Space Center and oceanfront accommodations for the duration of your stay.
